

Seven Fields Primary School-Newsletter

Dear Parent/Carer

Another week has flown by and, once again, I am proud of the work that the staff and children are doing. It was internet safety day earlier this week and the pupils were given tasks and taught about the importance of staying safe online. Sharing information with others online and connecting with strangers is something we all need to be aware of. Check your social media settings this weekend.

On Wednesday this week we were visited by a number of colleagues from the Trust who were engaged in looking at the school's provision since Ofsted. We have not yet received the review report but on the whole it felt very positive and a celebration of the work we have done since our inspection last May. We will share the WWW (What went well) and EBI's (Even better if) with you all when the report is received.

Covid-19

Numbers seem to be on the decrease in Swindon since last week which is good news. The measures that you have taken working with us to take extra care has helped keep disruption down to a minimum. Long may the trend continue and it is hoped that we will be able to start to get together again in assemblies and community events in the not too distant future.

SSEZ

You will have noticed this week the preparations being made by SBC to upgrade and replenish the road lines around our school, which will support the restrictions that will come into place next term. You will have been reminded about the SSEZ restrictions by leaflet again this week. This was the yellow one about safer and smarter parking. Remember the restrictions come into effect from 28th February. I know some parents have already been parking in the appropriate spaces so thank you.

In assembly this afternoon I reminded the children of their individual liberty which was the theme that we have been looking at this week. It forms one of the five fundamental British values that we teach children. I told them a story about 'Tidyland' which encouraged pupils to develop an appreciation of their own freedoms and to respect that of others. On Monday in Miss Roberts' assembly the children were asked how they would feel if we changed some of the school rules. It was only after we demonstrated our freedoms and liberty that the children were able to appreciate them.

I hope you all be able to make the most of the freedoms that you have this weekend

Well Done

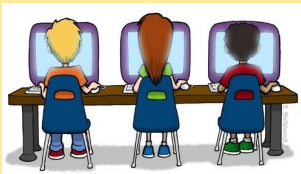

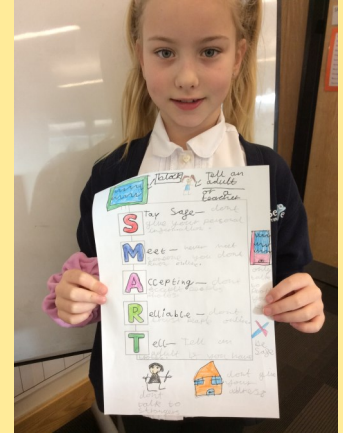

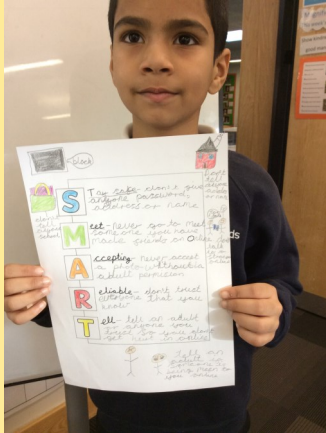

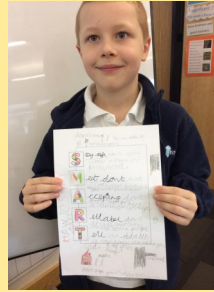

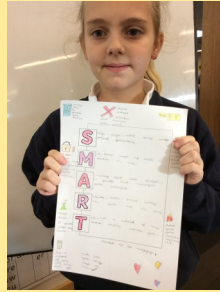

Here is this weeks hot chocolate phot. We were joined by Mrs Henderson the Director of Education from RLT. She was impressed by the children's behaviour and attitude but her joke about the invisible tomato was rotten!

Well done to the following children:

Darcy, Ella-Rose,, Amirah Noah, Kaurasi, Angel-Mai, Isaac, Abdul, Logan, Theo and Logan.

Kingfishers spent the day learning about how to stay safe online during their internet safety day

The children in Caterpillar class enjoyed some Goldilocks and the three bears sensory play.

Year 6 have been taking part in fencing lessons. They have learnt a number of skills that are needed for this sport. This week they used real swords and hopefully next week they will graduate.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

We have seen a huge increase recently in lateness at the beginning of the school day. Can we remind you that the gate opens at 8:30am for the children to be in class and settled to learn at 8:45am. If your child is persistently late you may receive a letter from our attendance officer

Please arrive on time

Thank you

Friday 18th February is the last day of term and will also be non uniform day for everyone.

Every week we have Rocksteady come to school and teach children how to play instruments. If you think your child may be interested please click this link for more details.
