

Seven Fields Primary School-Newsletter

Dear Parent/Carer

Today marks the last day of the academic year and a chance to say goodbye and good luck to the people of our community. Year 6 took part in their celebration this afternoon after a week of fun. Be it bowling, at the cinema (anywhere air conditioned!) or yesterday evening at their leavers BBQ. They have been such a fun and dynamic cohort and we have been blessed to have them as leaders of our school community. Isn't it funny that some of them were very keen to leave us (this often happens after their transition visits to secondary school) but, when push comes to shove and they really do have to leave, many of them don't want to.

I am reminded of that very famous line from Nanny McPhee:

When you need me but do not want me, then I must stay. When you want me but no longer need me, then I have to go.

Sadly we have to also say goodbye to some of our teachers.

Miss Neville- Wrens

Miss Neville has been a great supporter of the school for a number of years now. She has been a great addition to the KS1 team and has always had the children's best interest at heart. She leaves us today to go off on her new adventure of having her second child. We wish her all the best and hope that she is able to stay in touch with the school in the future.

We wish both our colleagues well and I look forward to seeing them again sometime in the future.

Mrs Branscombe- Hummingbirds

We are also sadly saying goodbye to Mrs Branscombe who only joined us in January but whose relentlessness and resilience have had such a positive impact on the children in her care. Those of us who have worked alongside Mrs Branscombe know how hard it has been to learn new policies and procedures in a different school. We are so lucky to have benefitted from her experience and pursuit of excellence. She very kindly delayed her new career [path for me earlier in the year and for that she has my heartfelt thanks.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank our PTA. This year they have organised and arranged events that will have raised so much money for the school. Thank you for all of your attendance at these events and for the way you have supported the school events this year.

I wish you all a calm, relaxing summer break and look forward to seeing everyone on September 5th.

Today we said our farewells to our Year 6 cohort of 2022. they told us their favourite memories of their time here at Seven Fields. Thank you to parents/carers who came to support them on what is the next step of their big adventure in life.
