

Seven Fields Primary School-Newsletter

Dear Parents/ Carers,

There has been a very big sporty theme to our week. Pupils have been taking part in their own version of the virtual London marathon in conjunction with this weekend's large scale event. Today they completed the last few metres of their event in fancy dress. Thanks you so much for supporting this. I bet our points in 'Beat the street' are on the increase!

This week, in assembly, Miss Peapell spoke to the children about the importance of friendliness. This is an easy concept to understand but often a lot harder to do especially if you are in one of those situations where you are a bit unsure. It requires vulnerability and trust to maintain friendliness and often people become reclusive because they have been hurt before and don't want to trust again. Friendliness emerges from the act of giving. A comment, compliment, smile, good manners or even remaining calm in a crisis. It would be so sad if we stopped being friendly. I often say good morning on the gate despite it being a rainy Monday morning because, by being friendly, I hope it can lift someone else's spirit.

Tomorrow marks the beginning of Black History Month which is observed every October in Britain. It is an opportunity to celebrate the outstanding contributions that Black people have made to British society, whether that be today or historically. Black History Month provides great opportunities to highlight key moments in Black British history. It is important to celebrate the contributions of everyone to our society and support the multiculturalism and diversity that helps shape our communities. Please talk to your child about the importance of this event, from Septimius Severus the first Black emperor of Rome to Mary Seacole caring for soldiers in the Crimean war. Our history and lives today have been impacted by these great people.

Finally, please look out for the dates for our parents evenings this term. We are going to give parents the choice of either joining us face to face or via a virtual platform that has been successful in more recent times.

Have a lovely weekend. Keep up those miles and let's try to beat the street again this weekend.

Children are to wear school PE kit on these days. They should not be in branded sportswear. If your child is in an afterschool club they must bring school PE kit as they are still representing Seven Fields primary school.

PTA meeting with Mrs young will be taking place on Friday 8th October 9am—10am. Everyone is welcome to pop along and take some time to speak with Mrs Young about school matters.

We have seen increases in children arriving late to school, please remember that the school gates open at 8:30am for the children to be in class and settled to learn at 8:45am. Being on time means children are not missing important lesson time. The odd 15 minutes lateness each day soon adds up to a whole lesson being missed in one week.
