

Know the rights and responsibilities of being a member of my class and school.

Share ideas about rewards and consequences.

Know how to make the class a safe and fair place.

Know how to work cooperatively.

Unit Overview

Key Vocabulary

Lesson 1

Worries and asking for help

Fill in the worry monster sheet to show one worry you have for this year, one way you can cope with it and one person you can ask for help with it.

Lesson 2

Rights and Responsibilities

Learn about your rights and responsibilities as a member of the class and school. Discuss the importance of different responsibilities and which are most important.

Lesson 3

Rewards and Consequences

Discuss the rewards and consequences within the class and school. Discuss how these are earned and what actions earn a reward or a consequence.

Lesson 4

Feeling Proud

Discuss ways you have made the teacher proud this week. What have you done to make yourself proud?

Lesson 5

Working Cooperatively and Keeping the Class Safe and Fair.

Discuss the importance of rules, rewards and consequences in keeping the class safe and fair. Work cooperatively in a group to design a poster to show this.

Lesson 6

End Point

Fill in four sections on a grid to show your understanding of the terms “rights, responsibilities, rewards and consequences” and give examples of them in our school.

Rights – Rights are needs or the things we should all have. These are things like the right to learn, the right to be safe, the right to be happy and the right to be healthy.

Responsibilities – These are things we are expected to do, such as following rules or being kind and helpful to others.

Rewards – Something good that is said, done or given because of something positive we did.

Consequences – Something bad that is said, done or taken away because of something negative we did.

Cooperatively – working together.