

Key Content

Know what an internet address is and why it is important.	Know how data is transferred across the internet.	Evaluate different methods of online communication	Understand ways we can communicate and work together online.
---	---	--	--

Unit Overview

Key Vocabulary

Lesson 1	To explain the importance of internet addresses.
Lesson 2	To recognise how data is transferred across the internet.
Lesson 3	To explain how sharing information online can help people work together.
Lesson 4	Evaluate different ways of working together online.
Lesson 5	Recognise how we communicate using technology.
End Point	Evaluate different methods of online communication.

Information

IP address— a unique address that identifies a device on the internet or a local network

Data— information such as facts and statistics used to analyse something or make decisions.

Transfer— to move something from one place to another.

Collaborate—to work together on something.