

Key Content (New Learning)

To begin to understand the expectations of males and females and how roles are shared in families

To identify and put into practice some skills of friendships - taking turns and listening

To understand how my needs and rights are shared by other children around the world

To begin to identify how our lives are different to children around the world

To know how to keep safe online

Unit Overview

Key Vocabulary

Lesson 1 How are roles shared in your family? Are all jobs unisex? Are stereotypes harmful?

Lesson 2 How can we solve conflict? Can you remember the solve it together technique? Can you find a win-win solution?

Lesson 3 How do you keep safe online? What would you do if you worried about anything online?

Lesson 4 How are we connected to other people across the globe?

Lesson 5 What is the convention of rights of a child? Can you recall some key rights from the convention? Do you enjoy these rights in your life?

End Point Appreciation streamers for someone who is special to them

Appreciation - the act of recognising that something is valuable or important

Career - a series of jobs that you do during your life to earn money and progress

Deprivation - a situation in which you do not have things or conditions that are necessary for a pleasant life

Equality - different groups of people receiving the same treatment

Justice - fairness in the way that people are treated

Problem solving - finding a solution to a difficult situation

Stereotype - a set idea that people have about what someone or something is like

Unisex - can be done by both males and females